

Did you know:

- It's possible to earn a Master of Theological Studies degree (32 credits) in an ecumenical setting right here in New Mexico?
- Financial aid is available for degree students?
- It's possible to complete the six three-credit core MTS courses and a final paper and earn a Certificate of Theological Competency?
- You can take a stand-alone course or simply audit a course in which you're interested?

For over twenty years St. Norbert College in De Pere, WI, in cooperation with the Albuquerque-based Ecumenical Institute for Ministry, has offered graduate theology courses to men and women eager to learn from each other and from professors representing several Christian faith traditions.

Our classes are generally offered on weekends at Santa Maria de la Vid Abbey. Located on Albuquerque's Southwest Mesa, the Abbey's peaceful grounds, interfaith library containing over 20,000 books, and welcoming spirit provide the environment in which students grow intellectually, spiritually, relationally, and in ministerial skills.
