

ST. NORBERT
COLLEGE

Master of Theological Studies

Summer 2019

THEO 506 Nature and Mission of the Church

Saturdays, 9:00 a.m. – 4:00 p.m.
May 18, June 1, June 15, June 29,

This class will meet at the Santa Maria de la Vid Abbey Library Seminar Room.

This course is a historical theological study of the origins, nature and mission of Church: basic images and themes in scripture and tradition; the relation of the kingdom to the Church; the relation of the Church to the world.

Rev. Dr. Wallace Ford

Dr. Ford is ordained in the Christian Church (Disciples of Christ) and served in parish ministries for 22 years and as Executive Director of the New Mexico Conference of Churches for 18 years. His teaching experience includes being adjunct faculty for Regis College, TCU and UNM (Health Sciences -- Center for Development and Disability: Continuum of Care) as well as UNM's Osher Lifetime Learning Institute. His continuing interest is in church renewal, NT studies and mediation.

Jennifer Murphy-Dye

Jennifer Murphy-Dye holds a B.S. degree from UNM and is a 2013 graduate of St. Norbert College's Master of Theological Studies program. Jennifer has worked with children, youth, and adults in a parish setting for over thirty years, and has been involved in leadership roles in various ecumenical and interreligious organizations throughout the Archdiocese of Santa Fe and New Mexico. She currently teaches Religion at Holy Ghost Catholic School in Albuquerque, NM.

For more information: Contact Christina Spahn; MTS-NM Office at 505-873-4399 X229 or christina.spahn@snc.edu
To register: www.snc.edu/knightline

For more information about the MTS program visit snc.edu/mts