

ST. NORBERT
COLLEGE

Master of Theological Studies

Summer 2019

THEO 522 Faith Development

Fridays, 7:00-8:30 p.m.
Saturdays, 9:00 a.m. - 3:00 p.m.
July 26, 27, August 2, 3, 16, 17

This class will meet at the Santa Maria de la Vid Abbey Library Seminar Room.

This course offers perspectives on the contributions of theology and developmental psychology to an understanding of faith development through the lens of modern developmental psychology. Students will discuss ways to encourage the development of a spiritual life across the life cycle.

Rev. Dr. Bert Scott

Rev. Dr. Bert Scott received his BA in Philosophy from Millsaps College in Jackson, Mississippi in 1962, a Master of Divinity in 1966 from Asbury Theological Seminary in Wilmore, Kentucky and a Doctor of Ministry from Candler School of Theology, Emory University, Atlanta, Georgia in 1992. He is ordained in the United Methodist Church and has served as pastor of churches in Kentucky, Mississippi, and Oregon.

For more information: Contact Christina Spahn; MTS-NM Office at 505-873-4399 X229 or christina.spahn@snc.edu

To register: www.snc.edu/knightline

For more information about the MTS program visit snc.edu/mts.