

ST. NORBERT
COLLEGE

Master of Theological Studies

Fall 2018

THEO 579 Enculturation and Evangelization

Fridays, August 31, September 14, 28 from 7:00-8:30 p.m.

Saturdays, September 1, 15, 29 from 9:00 a.m. - 3:00 p.m.

This class will meet in the Norbertine Library Conference Room.

This course explores the dynamic relationships between Christianity and contemporary culture and societies. It focuses on the development of contextual theologies and the unique challenges and opportunities of postmodern society for shaping a distinct Christian identity. Theories and methods of evangelization and of "New Evangelization" will be examined in light of these new cultural and global realities.

Dcn. Keith Davis

Deacon Keith Davis is currently the Director of Lay Ministry Formation and the Ministry Resource Center for the Archdiocese of Santa Fe. Keith earned his Bachelor's Degree in Theology from St. John's University in Minnesota, a Master's Degree in Religious Education from San Diego State and his Doctorate in Organizational Leadership from Grand Canyon University in Phoenix, AZ. He is currently assigned as a deacon at Our Lady of the Most Holy Rosary Catholic Community, Albuquerque, New Mexico.

Joseph Sandoval

Joseph Sandoval, MTS, earned his Master's in Theological Studies from St. Norbert College with a focus in spirituality. In his studies for the degree and since that time, he has focused on process theology. Prior to that degree, he earned a Bachelor of Science degree in Economics from Arizona State University. He teaches theology courses for the Archdiocese of Santa Fe and in the University of Dayton's Virtual Learning Community for Faith Formation program. He has been involved in the theological formation of Norbertine novices and Archdiocesan deacon inquirers. Joseph also taught college courses for 17 years as adjunct faculty. He is an oblate in the Order of Premontré at the Santa Mariá de la Vid Abbey, where he is the Director of Communications and assists in liturgical services.

For more information: Contact Christina Spahn; MTS-NM Office at 505-873-4399 X229 or christina.spahn@snc.edu

To register: www.snc.edu/knightline

For more information about the MTS program visit snc.edu/mts