Spring 2020

THEO 503 Scripture and Biblical Interpretation

Fridays, 7:00 p.m. – 9:00 p.m. and Saturdays, 9:00 a.m. – 3:00 p.m.
January 31, February 1, 14, 15, 28, 29, March 13, 14

This class will meet in the Library Conference Room at Santa Maria de la Vid Abbey.

This is an introduction to contemporary exegetical methods of interpretation through a study of particular biblical texts. The course will also investigate related biblical topics such as inspiration, canonicity and the place of Scripture in the Christian community.

Rev. Dr. Judith Todd

Dr. Todd is a 1975 graduate of Mc Cormick Theological Seminary in Chicago with a Master of Divinity degree. She later moved to California where she earned an MA (1982) and a PhD (1990) from the graduate Theological Union. During her graduate work, Dr. Todd taught Biblical Hebrew and Greek. She has co-authored two books, Living into the Answers (2008) and Listen for God's Leading (2009) published by the Upper Room. She is now the program director for Water and Desert Ministries, a Christian spiritual renewal organization in Albuquerque.

Jason Rodarte

Originally from Penasco, New Mexico, Dr. Jason Rodarte earned a BA in Religious and Pastoral Studies from the College of Santa Fe and studied theology at the Angelicum. He earned an MA in Education from the College of Santa Fe and an ED. D. from the University of Phoenix, for whom he also teaches. For several years he was the director of religious education at an Albuquerque parish and recently returned to full-time education work as a public high school teacher.
